

Designing Your Structure

When creating your designs, ask yourself the following questions:

- How can sustainable art making processes and methods contribute to removing barriers and promoting sustainability?
- How can my design incorporate recycled materials?
- How can I make my design unique to my personal experiences living sustainability?

we will be hanging the birdhouses up against the wall so make sure your design does not include the back side

Sketches:

Finalized Designs

